MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant for Public Affairs
FROM: Director of Central Intelligence
SUBJECT: Harper's Contact

My good friend Josiah Bunting (author of The Lionheads and once on the War College faculty) mentioned to me on the phone the other day his close friend Lewis Lapham, the Editor-in-Chief of Harper's, speaks highly of me. Lewis came to the Naval War College for one of our military media conferences. You might simply note this and perhaps add it to my computer file on media people so that if we have any desire or need to be in contact with Harper's, we know we have a good contact there.
